

Executive Assessment

A GMAC™ business degree assessment designed for experienced professionals.

Already in use by over 100 institutions around the globe, the Executive Assessment offers admissions professionals a way to evaluate candidate program readiness. It also provides the convenience that busy, experienced professional candidates need.

With this one 90-minute assessment, your institution can know a candidate's commitment to completing a graduate management education - before they enroll.

The Executive Assessment is accepted by leading schools around the world.

Representing over 250 programs, these schools use the Executive Assessment to confidently build classes across a variety of program types, including:

Executive MBA, Part-time MBA, Online + Hybrid MBA and Executive Masters

Why offer the Executive Assessment?

High Quality

Exam scores highly correlated to classroom performance.

Readiness

Focuses on helping you assess candidate ability + skill level (not necessarily on screening candidates out).

Reduced Time

Requires minimum prep time and enables candidates to submit their scores to your institution at no cost.

Pipeline Insight

Taking the assessment will allow candidates to demonstrate their commitment to your program and in turn help you gain earlier visibility into your pipeline.

Relevance

Designed specifically for the experienced professional based on skills candidates use every day.
